

Articles of The COVENANT of The Last Few Words

Article 14

“When you complete your passage through life, you will be brought before my Chief Judge who shall take the accounting of your deeds and doings and pass such order as may be deemed fit in the facts and circumstances of your Janam”

Discourse

Deeds are the acts that keep an individual in compliance with The Teachings.

Deeds are Acts of Commission.

Doings are acts or actions that an individual has carried out, done or performed, which place him or her in violation of The Teachings.

Doings may be Acts of Commission or Acts of Omission.

There is no provision for punishment.

The Chief Judge shall take note of the fact whether the Life Task has been carried out or not.

The Chief Judge shall take note of the dishonour of Grants if denied, disregarded or avoided by the Soul in front of Him.

The Chief Judge will receive an accounting of the number of times GOD was remembered by the Atma (body+mind) through the repetition of OMNMNKAAR.

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times the repetitions of OMNMNKAAR.

The Chief Judge will take account of the blessings distributed and earned by the Atma (body+mind).

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times the blessings earned.

The Chief Judge will take account of the deeds of the Atma (body+mind).

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times the deeds earned.

The Chief Judge will take account of the doings of the Atma (body+mind).

The Chief Judge will take account of The LAWS obeyed.

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times The LAWS obeyed.

The Chief Judge will take account of The LAWS violated.

The Chief Judge will take account of all The Rules followed.

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times The Rules followed.

The Chief Judge will take account of all The Rules disobeyed.

The Chief Judge will take account of all The Teachings observed and obeyed.

The Chief Judge will give credit equal to ten times The Teachings observed and obeyed.

The Chief Judge will take account of all The Teachings disregarded/flouted.

Where required, The Chief Judge has the facility to obtain witnesses to the account of deeds and doings of a particular Soul through The Teacher.

On completion of accounting, The Chief Judge shall pass such an order as may be deemed fit in the facts and circumstances of the passage of an Atma through Janam in the body+mind given to that Soul for that Janam.

The Chief Judge in His order shall specify the number of Joonis that will be required to cleanse that Soul of the layers of sin covering that Atma from that passage through life.