

The Regulations for The Teachings

A Partial Teaching on Regulation 3

Seeking is important

Discourse

A seeker is a person who is searching for the True Teacher and The Teachings.

A seeker is a person who uses The FOUR Way Test at all times to separate the grain of truth from the chaff of sophistry cloaking it.

A seeker is only satisfied when he finds The Teacher.

A seeker knows that the Name of GOD must always be in the public domain.

A seeker is among the first to apply to be a candidate shishya.

A seeker makes the effort to be responsible.

A seeker makes the effort to be positive.

A seeker makes the effort to enable himself or herself.

A seeker is dynamic.

The more I seek, the more I will discover.

The more I discover, the more I will learn.

The more I learn, the more I shall need to seek.

Seeking leads to knowledge.
